A. S. HEWITT ON THE RESULT.

THE ELECTION A REBUKE TO THE DEMO-CRATIC PARTY.

IT HAD ALLOWED ITSELF TO BE USED FOR THE BENEFIT OF THE BOSSES, AND THE PEOPLE MADE A VIGOROUS PROTEST-FAVORING AN ANTI-TANMANY MOVEMENT.

A statement was printed yesterday which repre-ented ex-Mayor Abram S. Hewitt as explaining to friends gathered about him on Tuesday evening at the Union Club how he voted at the election that day, and the reasons which caused him so to vote. The ex-Mayor's eyes were described as ex-tremely bright, his cheeks flushed, and his voice clear and triumphant as he said: "I have done to day what I never thought I should be compelled to do; I have voted a Republican ticket, not a scratch ticket, but a clean Republican ticket, and voted it as a Democrat, because my Democracy has com-pelled me to repudiate that false thing which has been masquerading in this State as the Democratic party. What we have seen to-day is the finest station of the higher Democratic spirit which has been seen in this country since the days when men forgot party and stood shoulder to houlder for the Union. We have been imperilled shoulder for the Union. We have been imperilled almost as greatly, more insidiously and therefore more dangerously than we were in 1861."

Ex-Mayor Hewitt was seen last evening at his home. No. 9 Lexington-ave., by a Tribune reporter and was asked if this report of his action as a free and independent citizen at the polls was cor-

Hewitt courteously replied: "How I exercised my right of suffrage on Tuesday is my af-fair, and I don't propose to explain it for publi-cation. What I may say to friends in the privacy of my home or the social club is something which no one is authorized to make public property. 1 do not know who is responsible for the statement given to the press, and I can say that it was en-

"But if you ask me what I think of the result I say that it is highly gratifying to me. If I voted the Republican ticket it was to express my disapprobation of the bosses who have dominated the State and city. Not, in my opinion, since the days of Tweed has there been so important an election. Decent citizens have arisen in their might nd rebuked the men who have been depriving the people of their right to choose their own rulers by means of partisan machinery which has become onerous and loathsome to self-respecting electors. "It has been asserted by a great part of the press that it was Maynardism that was condemned in Tuesday. Is that your view, Mr. Hewitt?"

"I see that this explanation has been given in prominent newspapers as the cause of the sweepng majorities given against the party which nominated Maynard, but 'Maynardism' does not ex-plain it. It was not 'Maynardism' that was cond, but the Democratic party. The Democratic party was rebuked and defeated because it had fallen under the control of the bosses, who were managing and manipulating the organizations for managing and manipulating the ords. The people their own selfish and unworthy ends. The people voted the Republican ticket in their desire to exvoted the Republican ticket in their desire to express their disapproval of the boss system. That is the explanation of the Democratic defeat in this State. I am as much opposed to the Republican machine as I am to the Tammany Hail machine, but it is the latter that is in power, and was the proper subject for condemnation. Of the two machines, I consider the Republican machine the more contemptible. It is a well-known fact that the Republican machine worked hand-in-glove with the Democratic machine for Maynard in this city.

"The most important question which the people met and decided at this election," continued the ex-Mayor, as he warmed to the subject, "was 'Shall the political bosses control the judiciary?' The judiciary is the bulwark of our rights, our property and our liberties. It is the only institution that we have which has not fallen under the heel of the machine. Maynard's nomination was forced by the bosses to discover how far they might for in subjecting the courts to their purposes. Our judges of the higher courts have been mainly incorruptible. They have manfully withstood the efforts of the partisans of the machine to bend them to their despicable schemes—most of them, though there are some that I would not trust very much. Nearly all the men upon the bench, both here and in Brooklyn, have proved their worthiness. But the sale of legislation, and if the machine could obtain control of the judiciary and enter into traffic in the causes of sultors what vast sums these political rulers could accumulate! Take the Drake case, for instance, where something like $20,00,000 is involved. If the judgement could be bought could not the successful party be induced to pay, say, a quarter of that amount? Traffic of this kind would be immensely remunerative.

"But the people have declared against the corrupt attempt with tremendous power, and have served notice upon the bosses that they must keep their hands off the courts. The rebuke was most timely and telling. But for this verdict do you suppose that a s press their disapproval of the boss system. That

"How do you look upon the proposition to organize a popular movement against Tammany Hall?"
"As everybody knows, I have withdrawn wholly from politics, but anything I can do to further such a movement I should be glad to do. Tammany Hall as at present controiled, is a bad organization and a menace to the citizens of New-York. The present is an opportune time to organize such a movement."

a movement."

Mr. Hewitt said that he thoroughly approved of the plan upon which the Good Government clubs were founded, and believed that if they proceeded upon their present lines they would be able to secure the balance of power in the city. When this was accomplished the nomination of bad men for offices could be brought to an end in New-York.

MR. MALBY'S VIEWS ON THE RESULT. HE SAYS IT WAS A VICTORY OF THE PEOPLE OVER THE BOSSES.

George R. Malby, of Ogdensburg, the leader of the Republican minority in the last Assembly, arrived at the Fifth Avenue Hotel yesterday. He came to New-York to confer with the Republican leaders upon the situation, as well as to take a short vacation after the hard work of the campaign. He received many congratulations upon the Republican victory and the prospect of good legislation in the interests of the people at the next "The result of the election," he said to a Tribune

I should say that the great general cause was the desire of the people to rule themselves, and not be ruled by bosses. The arrogant usurpation of supreme power by the Hill-Sheehan-Murphy Croker-McLaughlin combination was more than the people could stand, and so they rose in their and took back into their own hands the power of choosing their representatives, of which e Democratic bosses tried to deprive them.

I firmly believe that leaders of the Democratic machine had formuthe leaders of the Democratic machine had formulated a far-reaching policy which, if successfully carried out, would have placed them in the position of absolute dictators, whom it would have been almost impossible for the people to overthraw. The scheme lass been working for several years. The shameless legislation put through by the bosses' whip at Albany last winter was part of it, but only the beginning. I believe that if the Democratic bosses had won last Tuesday the Constitution of this State would have been torn in theres we far as a Democratic majority could do onstitution of this state of the state of th

Future legislation at Albany must be in the interests of the people, not of the bosses. The people of Buffalo are certainly entitled to have their city charter restored to them."
"Will you be a candidate for Speaker of the Assembly?"

Assembly T should esteem it a great honor, and feel it an expression of approval of the work which I have already done in the Assembly if that body should elect me Speaker. Still, I am not hustling for that office, and I shall be just as good a Republican and work just as hard for the interests of the Republican party and the people whether or not I am elected Speaker."

OTTO KEMPNER AND THE POLICE BULLIES. Assemblyman Otto Kempner, of the VIIth Diswhose re-election was opposed by the police and the combined power of the Tammany city government, sent charges to Superintendent Byrnes on November 6 against Ward Detectives Mallon and Rock, of the Fourteenth Police Precinct, ac them of buildozing storekeepers and orderindows. Mr. Byrnes replied that he had no authority to try and punish the detectives, and advised Mr. Kempner that he must send his charges to the Police Board. In answer to this, Mr. Kempner

"A trial before the Police Board would be a perfect farce," wrote Mr. Kempner. "These two men have undoubtedly received orders to interfere with a public election from a power outside the Police Department. The same power cannot only shield them from the consequences of their acts, but also reward them for their transgressions with promotion. They have brazenly lied to you when

So long as our municipal departments are run by Boss Croker they will be regarded as adjuncts to a political organization, and will be used to perpetuate its power. A Police Commissioner controlled by such influence is incapable of rendering justice."

COLONEL BLISS WILL PUSH THE CASE. HE WILL TRY TO HAVE A TAMMANY WORKER PUNISHED FOR VIOLATING THE ELECTION LAW.

Colonel George Bliss yesterday told a Tribane reporter the story of his causing the arrest of a Tammany Hall worker who was breaking the law in the interest of Tammany Hall and the criminal candidate for the Court of Appeals on Election Day by peddling bal-lots within the limits prescribed by the law. Mr. Bilss was coming out of his house to vote and he met the man within a short distance of the polling met the man within a short distance of the polling place. The fellow offered pasters to him which Mr. Bliss looked over. To assure himself that the polis were open and that the case could not be thrown out of court on a technicality Colonel Bliss went to the polling place and voted. Then he went out and caused the arrest of the man.

The officer who made the arrest did so with hesitation and reluctantly and not until after Colonel Bliss had told him that he was likely to get himself into trouble if he did not do so. The story of the abusive treatment of Colonel Bliss by John J. Scannell at the police station has been told. Police Justice Koch held the heeler for examination on next Wednesday. Colonel Bliss said yesterday that he intended to push the case to the end and to secure if possible the conviction of the man for violating the Election law.

secure justice for the Republican candidates for the Senate who were counted out by the Democrats in the winter of 1891, was seen yesterday by a Tribune reporter, who asked him to give his views of the recent victory for good government.

"To me the result has a special and peculiar gratification, for, after the Senate had been stolen by fraud, it was determined that an effort should be made to punish those guilty of the theft. I took up alone the case against Storm Emans, the clerk of Dutchess County, and tried to punish him for falling to do as the courts had directed. Judge Cullen gave us an oral examination before him in Brooklyn, of such witnesses as we could get. I think that Judge Maynard was summoned to appear, but he did not. From Judge Cullen I got a number of scoop-net subpoenas, which took in every one that I could think of who might have had something to do with the theft of the returns. Then I appealed to Judge Cullen for the appointment of a referee to take testimony in Albany. The referee was appointed, but on the day when it was expected that Judge Maynard would testify the Judge crept out of doing so by sending word that he must attend a consultation of the Judges of the Court of Appeals, It was by the merest accident that I found out that Maynard was the thief who stole those returns, and that accident resulted in the verdict of yesterday. I feel now that I have received ample return for my efforts, and with interest. It may be egotistical of me to say so, but if I had not undertaken to punish Emans it would never have been known that Maynard was a thief." be made to punish those guilty of the theft. I took

CONTROLLER MYERS GLAD HE DIDN'T RUN. Controller Myers said yesterday that as a good Democrat he had congratulated himself ever since Tuesday that he had withstood the appeals of the citizens who wanted him to run for re-election and and peremptorily refused to accept the nomination had peremptorily refused to accept the nomination.
"If I had done so," he said, "look at the unenviable position I would have been placed in. The defeat of the Democratic State ticket and the choice of a Republican Legislature and a Republican Constitutional Convention would have been laid at my door. Of course it would have been unjust, for the condition exists and I am not responsible for it. Nobody could tell what the end might have been had I consented or how many of the city candidates might have been defeated. As it is, I feel that the odium of aiding in the defeat of my party cannot attach to me."

ROBERTSON'S PLURALITY OVER MORRIS. The corrected returns of Westchester County give Bartlett 2,412 George W. Robertson's plurality for Senator over Alfred Hennen Morris is 642 in the district.

THE GRAND JURY SHOULD LOOK INTO THIS. Henry D. Sedgwick, Jr., made public yesterday his experiences as a watcher at the polls on Election Day. His experiences are interesting in show ing the extent to which the Tammany Hall heelers went to elect their ticket. Mr. Sedgwick was a watcher at No. 218 Madison-st. He was treated with great indignity throughout the day by the Tam-many men, and was cursed and abused generally. many men, and was cursed and abused generally. At the close of the election it was found that more votes had been cast than there were voters registered in the district. The chief inspectors, in place of putting the ballots back in the box, and then shaking them up so that no one could tell what the votes were, carefully arranged the ballots so that the inspector who drew out the surplus number knew exactly what ballots were being taken out. This is something which ought to be taken up by the District Attorney and brought to the attention of the Grand Jury.

GEN. SWAYNE REGISTERED AND VOTED. The statement has been published that General Wager Swayne, after presiding at a mass-meet ing, at which all citizens were urged to register and vote, had himself failed to register. This statement, General Swayne says, is false, as may be easily ascertained by referring to the records. General Swayne did register and cast his

He was fully advised that the people in Kings particularly were highly indignant at the scandalous administration of municipal affairs. Mr. Cleveland, however, does not believe that the vote meant any serious loss of strength to the Democratic party on national issues. The same spirit of independence and disposition to think, for themselves led the people who rolled up nearly 30,000 majority for him in 1852 was shown in the 20,000 and more majority for Schieren. The people of Brooklyn are thinking for themselves."

LATEST LEGISLATIVE FIGURES.

NO CHANGE FROM THOSE ALREADY GIVEN-RE-PUBLICAN MAJORITY, IN THE CONSTITU-TIONAL CONVENTION WILL

There was no change yesterday in the political complexion of the Legislature, the later returns only confirming the accuracy of the earlier ones. The Senate will have eighteen Republicans, thirtee regular Democrats and one Independent Democrat.
This Independent Democrat, "Honest Dan" Bradley, of Brooklyn, had a Republican indorsement, and undoubtedly will act with the Republican Senters in support of Mayor Schieren's reform administrative policy in Brooklyn, as expressed in ministrative policy in Brooklyn, as expressed in legislative acts in Albany.

The Republicans will have seventy-five members of the Assembly, and the Democrats fifty-three. It was learned yesterday that John F. Houghton, Republican, had been elected over John J. O'Connor, Democrat, in the IIId Assembly District of Kings County. But on the other hand, Pasfield, the Republican candidate in the IXth Assembly District of the same county, it was discovered had been defeated by Assemblyman Melody, Democrat. The Republican gain, therefore, was balanced by a Republican loss, and the Republican representation in the Assembly remained the same as before.

Late returns show that the Democratic party elected its candidates for members of the Constitutional Convention in the XVth Senate District. This increases the Democratic representation in the convention to seventy members, and leaves the Republican party with 105. The Republicans will have seventy-five members

THE SPEAKERSHIP CONTEST. THREE CANDIDATES IN THE FIELD-QUALIFICA TIONS WHICH THE SUCCESSFUL MAN

SHOULD HAVE The result of the election, again giving the Reublicans control of the Assembly, has attracted usiderable attention to the Speakership contest mong the Republicans elected to that There are now three avowed candidates for Speaker, each one of whom is a well-known Re blican. These candidates are Hamilton Fish, of Putnam County; Danforth E. Ainsworth, of Os wego, and George R. Malby, of St. Lawrence. Mr. Malby was the leader of the Republican miwego, and George R. Malby, of St. Lawrence. Mr. Malby was the leader of the Republican minority in the Assembly during the last session of the Legislature. The discussion of Speakership candidates among the Republicans who gathered at the Fifth Avenue Hotel yesterday showed that there was only one opinion as to what the calibre and character of the man should be who occupied that position. The recent victory indicated that the people demanded good, clean men, men with no entangling Democratic alliances, to occupy positions of trust and honor hereafter. The Republicans who considered the situation also declared that the Republican leaders in the future should be men against whom there are no complaints, and who are free from any attack on account of any so-called grudges.

Mr. Malby is in the city now, and both Mr. Ainsworth and Mr. Fish will be here to-day to work up their individual campaigns. On all sides the contest will be a friendly one, for each candidate has the highest respect for the other. It is the intention of each one of the candidates to do all that he can as a member of the Assembly to secure the repeal of all the vicious laws passed by the Democrats, and to restore confidence once more in the Legislature. With a Republican Legislature Home Rule will be a fact and not a farce.

KANSAS BACK IN LINE.

REPUBLICANS CARRY FIGHTY OUT OF 101 COUNTIES AND ELECT SEVEN JUDGES.

Topeka, Kan., Nov. 9.-Complete returns, officarried eighty out of 161 counties and sever judicial districts out of thirteen in which elections were held. DOWNFALL OF THE POPULISTS.

THE REPUBLICAN VICTORY IN NEBRASKA SEEMS TO BE COMPLETE.

Omaha, Nov. 9 (Special).-The lesson of the Ne braska election seems to be the decline of the Populists. It now appears that Harrison (Rep.) is elected Supreme Judge by over 5,000 plurality. This is a result entirely unanticipated. Many Republiis a result entirely unanticipated. Many Republicans and thousands of silver Democrats voted for Holcomb, the Populist candidate, and if he had held the Populist strength of last year he would have been easily elected. But he lost in the rural districts, where he was supposed to be strongest. It is evident that the People's party has lost its grip in this State, as in Kansas. The farmers seem to be describing it and returning to Republicanism. The Democrats are completely annihilated in this State.

WHAT DEFEATED MEN SAY.

Albany, Nov. 9 (Special).-Secretary of State Rice and Controller Campbell managed to get through the Republican snowdrifts in Western New-York and reach here to-day. Mr. Rice would say nothcandidates, but Mr. Campbell said, as he forces to say about the election. My next greatest regret after the loss of position by my men is that I will maye to sever my pleasant associations which I have formed in this old city. I have tried to do my duty as I understood it, in the office. I expected re-election because of the work I had done and the results I have achieved in increasing the revenues of the State. I will now go back to Bath and breathe the free air of heaven. I do not ask for pensions from any one."

Attorney-General Rosendale who had hoped that the later returns might possibly admit of his re-election, gave up the ship this morning. He wore a sad look as he said: "I made a good fight and lost, I will now return to my law practice." The thing most to be regretted by the Republican victory, Mr. Rosendale thought, was the many good men in State positions whom the change would throw out. to say about the election. VICIOUS LEGISLATION

(BY TELEGRAPH TO THE TRIBUNE.) Trenton, Nov. 9.-The Republican leaders are already busy discussing and mapping out some of the great work to be done by the Legislature during the coming winter. It is certain that over 200 partisan acts passed by the Democratic Legislature and designed solely in the interest of that party will be repealed. Most of these laws were put through by Judge Abbett while he was Governor. Places were made for scores of party workers, and many men were pushed into berths of prominence and profit, but when the time came to reward Abbett by electing him United States Senator, the men whom he made treacherously turned him down by voting for James Smith, jr., of Essex. Every one of these ingrates will now be ousted from office, and Judge Abbett is not weeping over the matter. Among those mentioned in previous dispatches who will have to go are "Boss" Pidcock, who is head manager of all the State asylums for the insane; "Barney" Ford, superintendent of the State House; John P. Feeney, Chief of the State Police, and J. P. McDonell, manager of the State Board of Arbitration. This means also the evacuation of scores of lesser offices occupied by their

One of the most flagrant abuses has been that of the management of the asylums. Formerly the Supreme Court appointed the officers, and only citizens of the first class were named, who served without pay. Their services were always satisfactory. But when the Democrats became firmly intrenched in power they made new laws for the government of the asylums and pothouse politicians were set over them. and pothouse politicians were set over them. Big salaries were paid, and undoubtedly Tuesday's heavy vote against the Democratic party was attributable in part to this matter. The State police force has never done a day's duty. Chief Feeney receives $2,500 a year, and he does absolutely nothing for it. The idea of a State police force was to quell riots and make unnecessary the presence of the militia on any scene of disorder, but the State police force did not appear at Camden on Tuesday. No one, indeed, has ever seen this "fake" institution. Feeney will be one of the first to go. Indeed, the reign of rings and bossos is over. The decision handed down in the Supreme Court to-day "knocking out" the gerrymander act anticipates the repeal of that outrageous piece of legislation. Under it the minority rules the majority in New-Jersey. All elections hereafter for members of the Legislature will be held as the constitution directs—that is, all the members running in a county will be voted for, instead of only one candidate, and voters will not be herded together in certain districts so that Democratic rule may be perpetual.

Thompson and the other racetrack people are gnashing their teeth because they last winter seated Hoffman, the Republican Senator of Atlantic County. He makes the majority of one that the Republicans will have in the next Senate, and he can be counted on to vote right for every party measure, while he will at the same time be powerless to do anything for his friends of the turf.

The racetrack agitation showed most effectively in Monmouth, Union and Hudson counties, where four of the six racetracks are located. Camden and Passaic, where the other two tracks are located, were also strongly Republican, though the success of Flynn and Thompson mars the delight of the agitators in those two counties. salaries were paid, and undoubtedly Tues-s heavy vote against the Democratic party the success of Flynn and Thompson mars the delight of the agitators in those two counties. It is possible that Flynn may be unseated, as he has no legal residence in Passaic County. It he has no legal residence in Passaic County. It is also possible that, since the courts are no longer under the fear of boss rule, Thompson may be made to suffer for some of the many crimes of which he is known to be guilty. Thompson has no democratic friends left now, as he is known to have used money to defeat Democratic Assemblymen who voted against his reactives hills.

Among the greatest surprises of the election was the Republican majority in Sussex County, which has been the most unswerving of all counties of the State in devotion to Democratic

The next Senate will have a number of men of marked ability among its members, including Voorhees of Union, Bradley of Monmouth, Ketcham of Essex and Thompson of Somerset. It may be said here, on the authority of leading Republicans of the State, that the course of the party will be conservative, and with due could be taken over again double the number would regard to the fact that the election was a people's victory, a spirit of fairness will control it.

HE WILL CONTEST THOMPSON'S SEAT. FRAUD AT THE POLLS CHARGED AGAINST THE "DUKE OF GLOUCESTER."

Camden, N. J., Nov. 9 .- Jacob C. Lippincott, the ndependent candidate against William J. Thompson for member of the Assembly from the IIId District of Camden County, has announced his de-termination to contest Mr. Thompson's seat, claim-ing to have indisputable proof of fraud.

HACKENSACK'S POLITICAL SOMERSAULT. It was not until the outlying township figures were known yesterday morning that the full measure of Republican success in Bergen County was realized. Jacob H. Ullmann, of Caristadt, Republican candidate for Coroner, made an astonishing lican candidate for Coroner, made an astonishing run, turning an edverse plurality of about 800 into a favorable plurality of 172. He pulled both Assembly candidates along with him to a certain extent, but Halsted, in the 1st District, could do no better than reduce the Democratic plurality by several hundred votes. In the Hid District, however, D. D. Zabriskie carried everything before him, and is elected by 500 plurality. This is the first time since the gerrymander that Bergen County has sent a Republican Assemblyman to Trenton. For the first time in twenty-eight years Hackensack, the county seat, went Republican. It is usually Democratic by about 250 plurality. Rutherford Borough rolled up 175 plurality for Zabriskie, and an American flag and a broom hung out from the headquarters of the Lincoln League yesterday. All the larger towns of the county, including Ridgewood and Curistadt, show marked Republican gains.

TO ASK FOR A RECOUNT.

Harry Holmes, the Republican candidate for member of Assembly in the IIId District of Hud-son County, N. J., has decided to contest the election of Thomas Egan, the Democratic candi-date, to whom the figures give a plurality of 36. Holmes alleges that the returns were doctored and a petition, asking for a recount, will be pre-sented to Judge Lippincott, of the Supreme Court.

SENATOR SHERMAN IS WELL PLEASED. Washington, Nov. 9.-Senator John Sherman, who has been in Ohio for a fortnight, returned to the city to-day. He is naturally elated at the splendid majority gained by the Republicans of the Buckeye to a query, "as a protest of the unemployed against any radical change in the tariff. I don't think the silver issue had much to do with it. Both parties in Ohio are sound on the money question, and each is entirely satisfied with what Congress has one regarding it."

"Do you think the Republican successes of Tues-y foreshadow a similar result in the Congress ections of '94?"

elections of '94?"

"The people of the Northern States," said Mr. Sherman emphatically, "are not so wedded to the Democratic party that they can't turn its representatives out in short order if they do anything that is inconsistent with the welfare of the country. I will say this: I don't believe that a single Democratic Congressman from Ohio will dare vote for the proposed tariff bill. They certainly will not if the measure reported is a destructive one."

GOV. FLOWER MAKING NO CLAIMS.

Albany, Nov. 9 (Special) .- The Democrats here are claiming nothing outside of a few local offi-cers. The private secretary of the Governor, Colonei T. S. Williams, was informed of the claim of New-York Democrats that the Democrate party has the State Senate. He replied that no one in Albany was making such a claim. Then he added: "I wish we could." Colonel Williams said that the Governor received word yesterday that Morris was defeated. He could see no grounds for such a claim as the New-York Democrats were reported as making.

DEMOCRATIC FRAUD IN ALBANY.

Troy, Nov. 3.-Amos W. Ablett, Republican can embly District of Albany County, claims his election, and will contest the seat in the Legislature. It was alleged that in one of the districts where the election took place 115 votes were placed in the ballot-box by the Democratic inspectors before the polis were opened. In another district Mr. Ablett was seemingly defeated by a majority of more than 100, where Durant, Republican candidate for Semi-tor, received a large majority. In several of the wards of West Troy, the Republican inspectors refused to sign the returns, on the ground of wholesale repeating.

THE UNION LEAGUE CLUB'S COMMITTEE ON POLITICAL REFORM WILL CONSIDER THE SUBJECT-DEMOCRATIC DISSATIS-

FACTION GROWING. The regular monthly meeting of the Union League Club was held last evening. The president of the club, General Horace Porter, presided. In the absence of John R. Van Wormer, Sigourne W. Fay was secretary. There was a large attendance of members, and there were hearty exchanges ance of members, and there were hearty exchanges of greetings over the Republican victories of Tuesday. Chauncey M. Depew was among the early arrivals. Cephas Brainerd, James A. Blanchard, John I. Davenport, General C. H. T. Collis, George Rutledge Gibson, Charles Stewart Smith and a hundred and one or more others shared in the eneral jubilation. After the assembling of the meeting, Charles general jubilation. Stewart Smith offered the following resolution: Resolved, That the Committee on Political Reform be requested to report at the next meeting of the club if in their judgment it is desirable for this club to lead to a movement by which an attempt shall be made to invite all good men, without reference to political affiliations, in the one issue of good government for this city, and if so, to formulate a plan therefore The resolution was promptly seconded by Gen-

out discussion. Edward T. Bartlett, Judge-elect of the Court of Appeals, did not reach the clubhous until the meeting had adjourned. He stood for some time at the foot of the stairway in the main hall on the first floor, receiving congratulations. At 9:30 o'clock some of the members, including Judge one of the dining-rooms upstairs, where they chat-ted informally over the political situation.

These were the resident members elected: Clar-nce S. Wadsworth, Alfred F. Baldwin, H. P. Clark. Gardiner Van Nostrand, C. Lambert, William P. Rutter and Josiah Lombard.

The proposition now agitated by the Union League Club has formed one of the main subjects of political discussion in this city since the election. A great many independent Democrats are known to favor the formation of a party opposed to Tammany Hall, which will support good men for office, regardless of political preferences in the past. Those who are interesting themselves in the past. Those who are interesting themselves in the movement point to the fact, which an inspection of Tuesday's election returns will confirm, that there are in the Democratic party of this city at least 35,000 men who, while voting the Tammany ticket as a whole, refused to obey the orders of Richard Croker and yote for Isaac H. Maynard. This show of independence under great difficult was regarded yesterday as a most encouraging symptom, and many declared that if the vote would now extend and deepen, until it good part of the Tammany Hall citadel itself.

"There are in New-York," said a prominent Demo-crat, who held posts of high honor in the State before his party fell under the control of the Hill machine, "not less than 65,000 or 75,000 Democrats who are now ready to enter an organization having for its object the downing of Tammany Hall With the men who voted against Maynard as a nucleus we can organize a movement which will take the lead in defeating every candidate on the Croker ticket next year, from Mayor down. But there should be little delay, as the work of organization ought to begin forthwith."

The names of ex-Mayor William R. Grace, ex-Mayor Edward Cooper, Maurice J. Power, ex-Secretary Charles S. Fairchild, Collector James T. Kilbreth, Francis M. Scott and even Postmaster Charles W. Dayton were quoted yesterday as likely to join in the proposed plan. The New-York Citizens' Democracy, with John Fennell and Otto Kempner as leaders, have declared their desire to ally themselves to such a movement, as have also the leaders of the Steckler Associa tion. There are many other associations through the city. Democratic in their tendencies, which can be relied upon to affiliate under respectable leader-ship with earnest and public-spirited citizens to overthrow Tanmany Hali and put an end to the outrageous system of blackmail under which the Wigwam rulers are charged with enriching them-selves.

Wigwam rulers are charged with enriching themselves.

In addition to these, the better portion of the Tammany Hall organization having become restless under ignorant, desperate and brutal bosses, is alleged to be ready to break away from Mr. Croker's sway and aid in establishing a new Democratic organization. That the dissatisfaction with the Wigwam has been growing with startling rapidity during the last six months is hardly denied by the Tammany leaders themselves, some of whom are among the disaffected.

Ex-Mayor Hewitt said yesterday: "Tammany Hall is an autocracy, and no man of independent mind can long remain there. A movement against it ought to meet the support of all good citizens and such a one would receive my cordial aid and co-operation."

co-operation."

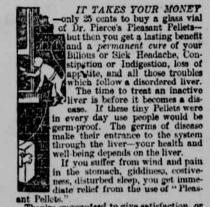

No formal steps have yet been announced, but it was reported yesterday that the plans are being formulated, and that some public announcement from Democratic sources is probable within a brief time.

OPINIONS OF PARIS NEWSPAPERS. THE "TEMPS" SAYS THE REPUBLICANS HAVE GAINED A STRIKING REVENGE-

M'KINLEY'S TRIUMPH. Paris, Nov. 9 .- The "Temps," commenting editorially on the American elections, says that the Republicans have gained a striking revenge. It is impossible, it adds, to endeavor to diminish the importance of the defeat of the Democrats, who were absolutely routed. Continuing, the "Temps

"The country wished to express its indignation at a section of Democratic Senators fighting the repeal of the Sherman law. President Cleveland, far from being enfeebled by the victory of his adversaries, has been the rather fortified, since he has overcome the opposition of sham friends.
Local conditions complicated the problem. In New-York Judge Maynard's candidature caused public indignation to overflow. Judge Maynard is a worthy preduct of the alliance between Senator-Hill and Mr. Cooker and this electronic state. Hill and Mr. Croker, and this alliance contributed to the discomfiture of the list in which he figured." The "Temps" further says that the triumph of Governor McKinley in Ohio inflicts a grave wound in an essential part of the Presidential programme. It is the apotheosis of Protectionism in the person of the author of the Tariff bill. President Cleve-land will find no encouragement to undertake the difficult but necessary task of tariff reform. He would not have been hurt by the defeat of Tammany Hall, which was always hostile to him, had he not tarnished his shield as champion of administrative reform. His choice of Mr. Horn-blower as a Justice of the Supreme Court. Mr. Van Alen as Ambassador to Italy and Mr. Roosevelt as Secretary of the Embassy at Lendon showed that he was capable of stooping to discreditable intrigues, in which his Tammany enemies are pastmasters.

The "Liberte" says of the American elections: "Everything points to the return of the Republicans to power in 1836. The Protectionists do not consider the game lost. The moral reform projects of the Democrats are lost and McKinley survives."

PEARSALL DEFENDS M'KANE. Poughkeepsie, Nov. 9 (Special).-Thomas E. Pears sall, the defeated candidate for Supreme Court Judge, landed in this city this noon from a fast train from New-York. He hurried through the station to the cab line, and, ordering a cab, got into it, saying to the driver: "Take me to Judge Barnard's house, quick." The Judge had been very busy all day, and was hurrying through his luncheon to get back to court, as he had two more cases to try. When Mr. Pearsall arrived at the house he dismissed "cabby," rang the door-bell, and sent in his card. He had not come on any law business, for if such had been the case he would have had any order he desired drawn up and then would have departed. He came, however, undoubtedly to talk politics from a defeated candidate's point of view, or to receive the views of Judge Barnard in regard to the Gravesend affair, but he did not have time to broach any subject long, as he did not remain at the Judge's house ten minutes, having to hurry to catch the 1:05 p. m. train for New-York. It looked as if he came to make sure that evening declaring his innocence. Judge Barnard told him no papers had yet arrived showing that McKane had violated any order, and that no ac-tion could be taken without papers making out a case. McKane had violated any other, and to case.

The Judge also said: "I have read in the papers of the Gravesend affair, and to-day I also read a communication in "The Brooklyn Eagle from McKane saying he was wholly innocent of the crime charged, so I have not formed any opinion, A man cannot be judged from newspaper accounts, and a judge cannot try a case until ficomes before him."

Mr. Pearsall did not call upon any of the Democratic leaders here. J. W. Hinckley, the leader of the Democracy in this county, did not know Pearsall lad been here until the latter had started on his return trip to New-York, nor did James L. Williams, another leader, nor Frank B. Lown. After Mr. Pearsall left town and the leaders heard of his having been here there was quite a stir of his having been here there was quite a stir among them. They wondered why he should come here on the quiet and depart so suddenly, and they are still wondering.

Judge Barnard saw Chief McKane's interview which appeared in "The Brooklyn Eagle" last

A PLEA FOR REORGANIZATION.

To the Editor of The Tribune. Sir: The people, Republicans and Democrats, have won a great victory against the rings, organized for won a great victory against the rings, organized not plunder and spoils. We have a fight for next year, when we must elect a Republican Governor.

Let the Republicans of this city, who love the party for its principles and achievements in the past, at once insist upon a reorganization of the party on the election district plan, and prepare for the campaign of 1894. We should act at once, the campaign of 1894.
